

JOCKEY MCCARTHY RIDES FOUR WINNERS

Home First in Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth Races.

TWO EVENTS FOR MADDEN

Woodbine Stumbles and Throws Jockey Krause in Stretch.

THREE FAVORITES SPLIT CARD

Nationals' Regulars Trim Kansas City—Goth Is Champion Wrestler.

John E. Madden won two races at Remington yesterday, while McCarthy, with four winners, carried off the riding honors of the day. Four favorites were defeated over a good track. The weather was cloudy and the attendance fair. Simple Honours, 8 to 5 favorite in the first race, a handicap at six and a half furlongs, led from the start to the last furlong pole, where he stopped. Then Campaigner, 7 to 2, stepped up on the rail and lasted long enough to win by a head from Smoker, 13 to 3, who beat the favorite half a length. McCarthy rode the winner, while McCarthy was on the third horse. The time was 1:24.5.

Madden won the bulk of the honors in the second race, for maiden two-year-olds, at four and a half furlongs, when Takahira and Doves, coupled at 1 to 1, ran first and second respectively, the former rolling home with eight lengths to spare, while the latter beat Lady Elizabeth, 20 to 1, half a length for the place. McCarthy handled this winner with ease. The time was 0:58.

Bob Callahan, Jr., 9 to 10, after racing Kempton, 4 to 1, in submission, won the third race, for platers, at six and a half furlongs, in a gallop, McCarthy having the place, with True Boy, 15 to 1, third. The time was 1:25.

McCarthy's Third Win.

McCarthy rode Madden's High Range, coupled with Abandon at 3 to 10, to victory in the fourth event, for two-year-olds, four and a half furlongs. Tim Pippin, a 20-to-1 shot backed from 50, made all the pace to the middle of the stretch, where High Range nipped him. The latter hung. High Range then won easily by a length and a half, while Elizabeth Sweeney, a 50-to-1 shot, took the place from Tim Pippin by half a length. Von Laer, 7 to 5, was outstayed all the way. The time was 0:58.1-5.

McCarthy also rode Milestone, backed from 8 to 4, successfully in the fifth race, at six and a half furlongs. Milestone was always up with the pace and went to the front readily to win as he pleased by three lengths in 1:23.4-5. Bill Daly's Umbrella, 7 to 1, beat Von Laer, 1 to 1, in a drive for the place. Brookdale, 16 to 5 favorite, was off poorly and never got clear.

Park Row, 5 to 1, had early speed in the sixth race, at a mile and forty yards, and under a hard drive managed to win by a head from Bill Daly's Killcrankie, 1 to 2. Foosegater, 6-to-5 favorite, after leading for a short distance, tired. The time was 1:48.

An accident marred the fifth race. Woodbine, a heavily played choice, was thrown just after turning into the stretch and threw his jockey, Krause. The youngster was badly shaken up, but not apparently seriously hurt.

The Summaries.

FIRST RACE.
Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward; $500 added; six and a half furlongs.
Horse and age. Wt. Jockey. Betting. Fin.
Campaigner, 4, 95, McCarthy, 7-2 6-5 1st
Smoker, 13, 3, 112, Horner, 13-5 4-5 2nd
Simple Honours, 8, 105, McCarthy, 8-5 2-5 3rd
Lady Elizabeth, 20, 1, 105, McCarthy, 8-1 5-2 4th
Howard Sheen, 4, 105, McCarthy, 12-1 3-1 5th
Time, 1:24.5.

Good start; won easily; Campaigner, chg., 4, by Horner—Sullivan, owned by O. L. Richards.

SECOND RACE.
For maiden two-year-olds; $400 added; four and a half furlongs.
Horse and age. Wt. Jockey. Betting. Fin.
Takahira, 2, 105, McCarthy, 1-4 1-8 1st
Doves, 2, 105, Horner, 1-4 1-8 2nd
Von Laer, 7, 5, 105, McCarthy, 1-4 1-8 3rd
Great Jubilee, 2, 105, McCarthy, 1-4 1-8 4th
Jelen Hills, 2, 105, McCarthy, 1-4 1-8 5th
Clemens, 3, 105, McCarthy, 1-4 1-8 6th
Prest, 2, 105, McCarthy, 1-4 1-8 7th
Madden, 2, 105, McCarthy, 1-4 1-8 8th
Time, 0:58.1-5.

Good start; won easily; Campaigner, chg., 2, by Plaud—Lucy, owned by J. E. Madden.

THIRD RACE.
Selling; for three-year-olds and upward; $400 added; six and a half furlongs.
Horse and age. Wt. Jockey. Betting. Fin.
Callahan, Jr., 9, 10, McCarthy, 9-10 2-5 1st
Kempton, 4, 1, 105, McCarthy, 9-10 2-5 2nd
True Boy, 15, 1, 105, McCarthy, 1-4 1-8 3rd
Westover, 4, 105, McCarthy, 4-1 6-5 4th
Clemens, 3, 105, McCarthy, 2-5 6-1 5th
Coppers, 3, 105, McCarthy, 4-1 12-1 6th
Little Woods, 6, 105, McCarthy, 4-1 12-1 7th
Time, 1:25.

Good start; won easily; Callahan, Jr., chg., 2, by Plaud—Lucy, owned by J. E. Madden.

FOURTH RACE.
For two-year-olds; $400 added; four and a half furlongs.
Horse and age. Wt. Jockey. Betting. Fin.
High Range, 3, 107, McCarthy, 3-10 2-5 1st
Von Laer, 7, 5, 105, McCarthy, 1-4 1-8 2nd
Abandon, 2, 105, McCarthy, 3-10 2-5 3rd
Madden, 2, 105, McCarthy, 3-10 2-5 4th
Time, 0:58.1-5.

Good start; won easily; High Range, chg., 2, by Galore—Madden, owned by J. E. Madden.

FIFTH RACE.
Selling; for four-year-olds and upward; $500 added; six and a half furlongs.
Horse and age. Wt. Jockey. Betting. Fin.
Umbrella, 7, 1, 105, McCarthy, 4-1 2-1 1st
Von Laer, 7, 5, 105, McCarthy, 4-1 2-1 2nd
Yenus, 4, 105, McCarthy, 4-1 2-1 3rd
Brookdale, 6, 105, McCarthy, 16-5 7-5 4th
Shackie, 4, 107, McCarthy, 10-1 12-1 5th
Old Guard, 5, 107, McCarthy, 15-1 6-1 6th
Terror, 4, 107, McCarthy, 25-1 9-1 7th
Racketeer, 4, 107, McCarthy, 25-1 9-1 8th
Woodline, 4, 107, McCarthy, 5-1 2-1 9th
Time, 1:23.4-5.

Good start; won easily; Milestone, chg., 4, by Royal Flush—Hess, owned by F. T. Miller.

SIXTH RACE.
Selling; for one-mile and upward; $500 added; one mile and forty yards.
Horse and age. Wt. Jockey. Betting. Fin.
Park Row, 5, 107, McCarthy, 5-1 2-5 1st
Killcrankie, 1, 1, 105, McCarthy, 9-2 even 2nd
Doves, 2, 105, McCarthy, 9-2 even 3rd
Heldmore, 5, 110, McCarthy, 3-1 even 4th
Time, 1:48.

Good start; won easily; Park Row, chg., 5, by Mitchell—Skyscraper, owned by H. Harris.

RILEY GRANNAN, "PLUNGER," IS DEAD

RAWHIDE, Nev., April 4.—Riley Grannan, the "plunger" known to racing men all over the country, died here yesterday of pneumonia. He had been ill but a short time.

Riley Grannan was one of the most picturesque figures the American turf has ever known. Next to "Pittsburg" Phil, he was the coolest, "gamest" man that made and lost money on the track. With $20,000 staked on a race, this man of iron nerve would stand on his stool on a lawn and without a tremor watch his favorite be beaten by some supposed second-rate.

Fortune after fortune slipped through his hands. But each time, until 1907, he retrieved. Then he went almost absolutely "broke" and the Riley Grannan who in the old days plunger thousands on a contest, became Riley Grannan, the two-dollar bettor.

Some weeks ago Grannan went from San Francisco to Rawhide, Nev. His first exploit was to break the gambling house of Carl Young at Reno, Nev., clearing $50,000. Within a day or two he was stricken with pneumonia.

The greatest exhibition of nerve the plunger ever gave was witnessed when Henry of Navarre and Domino ran a dead heat. Grannan, at the zenith of his career, had backed for his book and decided to risk everything on Henry of Navarre. Other bookmakers posted their prices against Grannan's choice. Suddenly Riley leaped on his stool and shouted "I had had six hands instead of two," he said later. "I couldn't have taken the money offered. I heard the cry, 'They're

THE MAN WHO BESTED THE RUSSIAN LION.

YORACE LERCH FRANK GOTCH PF. O'CONNOR

GOTCH IS WORLD'S CHAMPION WRESTLER

Hackenschmidt, the "Russian Lion," Quit in Match After 2 Hours and 5 Minutes' Work.

"I heard the pounding hoofs, and I was still taking the money. Then came the thrilling call: 'A dead heat between Navarre and Domino.' I stood on that stool prepared to lose $150,000, the amount I was pledged to pay if Domino won." And Grannan never turned a hair during those tense moments.

The number of times Grannan watched a horse, which figuratively bore on its back every cent he had in the world, would make a long list. In a narrative of that series of crucial moments it could not be truthfully stated that he quailed under the pressure of the moment. He would bet in any kind of a game.

It was said he would bet on how far a peanut would roll down a hill. When bridge whist came into vogue he spent most of his time over the green baize, trying to get enough money to return to the top rung of the ladder at the tracks. Grannan was known to every man and woman who closely followed the racing game, and his nonchalance, when either winner or loser, was marked at the track. He saw him with the old black leather-covered field glasses glued to his eyes.

The passing of Grannan leaves in the world only one man of the "old school" of plungers on the track. That man is "Davy" Johnson.

STARTER DADE AND CORRIGAN IN MIX UP

The personal encounter between Ed Corrigan and Starter Dade in the St. Charles Hotel, New Orleans, the other night has caused no end of discussion among turf men. The details of the trouble have just come to hand. It appears that the row was caused by an accusation by Corrigan that Dade had ordered his assistant, Ed Harwood, to throw the race. Corrigan, at the post in a two-year-old stake run during the afternoon at the Fair Grounds, Corrigan went into the judges' stand and asked Dade what he meant by twisting and turning his horses at the post. He supplemented the question by saying with a threat to walk on the starter if he did it again. Dade overlooked the latter and in the evening and asked for an explanation. Corrigan, during a brief altercation, pushed Dade back. Dade responded by swinging his cane at the veteran turfman's head. Corrigan managed to dodge and before any damage could be done spectators interfered.

In a scuffle which followed Dade managed to get one arm free and landed a stiff right on his opponent's ear. Corrigan clinched and tore the starter's shirt into ribbons. Dade was finally led out of the hotel while Corrigan went to his room. While general regret is expressed by New Orleans horsemen because of the trouble, Dade's position is for the most part unimpaired. It is probable that the incident is not closed. Dade is very bitter and so is Corrigan, who has been frequently mixed up with race track officials. The latter is hot headed and believes in using his fists to resent an alleged wrong.

Looking for Games.

The Brookland Methodist base ball team has just been reorganized under new management, and is ready to play ball. Its new diamond at 12th street and Rhode Island avenue, South Brookland, the finest amateur base ball diamond in Washington. All uniformed teams desiring games, should write to E. C. Saltzman, 1527 M Street, Washington, D. C.

The Star Juniors have organized and are now ready to receive challenges from teams averaging seventeen years. The lineup will probably be as follows: Meyer, center field; Watson, pitcher; Collier, catcher; Langford, right field; Nolan, third base; Buckingham, first base; King, left field; Dodge, second base; Halper, shortstop; and Callan and Beyer in reserve. Send all challenges to A. W. Collier, 22th street northwest.

The Emerson base ball club has organized for the season. Last year it was practically the sixteen-year-old champion of the District and with the present line-up the prospects for the coming year are still brighter. The infield is especially strong with a heavy battery. The lineup is as follows: Beller, second base; Maclean, center field; Leary, pitcher; Dix, Wilson, Wright and Zier, utility players.

The strong St. Martin's base ball team has organized for the coming season with the following players: G. Norris, pitcher; Daly, Houch, second base; Halper, shortstop; Turner, first base; D. Murphy, second base; Hammett, third base; Lewis, left field; and Houch, right field. Ernest, center field; P. Murphy (manager) right field. Address all challenges to F. Murphy, 111 Seaton street northeast.

GOTCH'S NECK AND TRIED TO PULL HIM OFF HIS FEET.

Gotch's neck and tried to pull him off his feet. Gotch's quick duck of the head spoiled the effort. Hack then made futile attempts to grab Gotch's leg, but the latter was too shifty.

In one of the clinches Gotch stuck his thumb under Hack's eye, and the bout act a few minutes later. He did this a third time, and was hissed. At the end of thirty minutes they were still fiddling.

In the fifty-first minute of the bout Hack rushed his man, pulled Gotch toward him, and as quick as a flash got behind him and forced him to his knees. Gotch regained his feet almost instantly before Hack could get near enough to hold him down.

Both missed leg and body holds. Gotch taking the offensive for the first time. One hour after the start nothing approaching a hold had been gained by either man.

Fifteen minutes more of the tiresome work followed. Then Hackenschmidt suddenly attacked with fury. But Gotch wriggled away and the shoulder-to-shoulder tactics began again.

Gotch's defense puzzled Hackenschmidt. After an hour and three-quarters of fruitless attempts to get a hold he straightened up and looked at his opponent with disgust written in every feature.

"Come on, wrestle," said Gotch. The crowd cheered.

At 12:15 Hackenschmidt asked the referee to call it a draw, but Smith told them to continue.

They wrestled all over the ring, then went down. Gotch on top. Hackenschmidt slipped from a toe hold.

After more than two hours of unavailing tugging and desperate scrambling, the referee stepped in and declared the match a draw.

"I'll give you the match," Referee Smith at once declared Gotch the winner.

Crowd Is Dismayed.

The end came unexpectedly that the great crowd of 8,000 which witnessed the contest could scarcely comprehend what had happened. Not until the referee had announced that Hackenschmidt had rendered the championship of the world to Gotch did the full significance of the event strike home.

Then the excited men swarmed into the ring, surging about Gotch until the police came to his rescue and drove the crowd back through the ropes. The match served mainly to show the world that the referee system which is hard to break down.

For an hour and forty-five minutes he eluded every attempt of the Russian to fasten a grip on him. Gotch sidestepped, dodged, and evaded, but his man's features with his knuckles, butted him under the chin and rendered his head dizzy.

It was 8:45 o'clock, however, when Tommy Rooney and Young Jenkins began the first round of the match at 11:30. Rooney won in 8:45.

In the second preliminary young Billy downed Ernest Lundberg in 14:32. The men weighed 133 pounds. Ted Tommen and Dick Torrenson met in the third bout at 14:50. Torrenson won with a toe hold. Time, 12:41.

American amateur wrestler, made short work of Harry Laudbach of Chicago, in the fourth bout. He owned the local heavyweight in 1:59 with bar lock and crowd.

The fifth preliminary brought Mort Henderson and William Demetral together. Demetral won a hard bout in 8:30.

In the next match Emil Stegmüller, Hackenschmidt's wrestling partner, agreed to throw Henry Ortmann of Minneapolis in ten minutes. To the delight of the crowd Ortmann took the offensive.

He slammed the burly German to the mat, and for seven minutes gave Stegmüller no chance to get a hold. During the last three minutes Ortmann was on the defensive, but managed to wriggle out of all holds, and easily stayed the limit.

Big Match On.

Hackenschmidt entered the ring at 10:14, and was loudly cheered. He faced the crowd smiling, and seemed confident. He was accompanied by American, the Russian wrestler, and Unholz, the boxer. Gotch appeared at 10:15, being received with deafening cheers, the crowd rising to its feet. Gotch was wearing a Russian cap and a white shirt and trousers. He was wearing a white shirt and trousers.

Manager Wittig appeared and was introduced. Both wrestlers posed for photographs. Referee Ed Smith called the men to the center of the ring for final instructions. Then they stripped and shook hands, and the match was on.

THE MAN WHO BESTED THE RUSSIAN LION.

Hackenschmidt, the "Russian Lion," Quit in Match After 2 Hours and 5 Minutes' Work.

"I heard the pounding hoofs, and I was still taking the money. Then came the thrilling call: 'A dead heat between Navarre and Domino.' I stood on that stool prepared to lose $150,000, the amount I was pledged to pay if Domino won." And Grannan never turned a hair during those tense moments.

The number of times Grannan watched a horse, which figuratively bore on its back every cent he had in the world, would make a long list. In a narrative of that series of crucial moments it could not be truthfully stated that he quailed under the pressure of the moment. He would bet in any kind of a game.

It was said he would bet on how far a peanut would roll down a hill. When bridge whist came into vogue he spent most of his time over the green baize, trying to get enough money to return to the top rung of the ladder at the tracks. Grannan was known to every man and woman who closely followed the racing game, and his nonchalance, when either winner or loser, was marked at the track. He saw him with the old black leather-covered field glasses glued to his eyes.

The passing of Grannan leaves in the world only one man of the "old school" of plungers on the track. That man is "Davy" Johnson.

The personal encounter between Ed Corrigan and Starter Dade in the St. Charles Hotel, New Orleans, the other night has caused no end of discussion among turf men. The details of the trouble have just come to hand. It appears that the row was caused by an accusation by Corrigan that Dade had ordered his assistant, Ed Harwood, to throw the race. Corrigan, at the post in a two-year-old stake run during the afternoon at the Fair Grounds, Corrigan went into the judges' stand and asked Dade what he meant by twisting and turning his horses at the post. He supplemented the question by saying with a threat to walk on the starter if he did it again. Dade overlooked the latter and in the evening and asked for an explanation. Corrigan, during a brief altercation, pushed Dade back. Dade responded by swinging his cane at the veteran turfman's head. Corrigan managed to dodge and before any damage could be done spectators interfered.

In a scuffle which followed Dade managed to get one arm free and landed a stiff right on his opponent's ear. Corrigan clinched and tore the starter's shirt into ribbons. Dade was finally led out of the hotel while Corrigan went to his room. While general regret is expressed by New Orleans horsemen because of the trouble, Dade's position is for the most part unimpaired. It is probable that the incident is not closed. Dade is very bitter and so is Corrigan, who has been frequently mixed up with race track officials. The latter is hot headed and believes in using his fists to resent an alleged wrong.

The Brookland Methodist base ball team has just been reorganized under new management, and is ready to play ball. Its new diamond at 12th street and Rhode Island avenue, South Brookland, the finest amateur base ball diamond in Washington. All uniformed teams desiring games, should write to E. C. Saltzman, 1527 M Street, Washington, D. C.

The Star Juniors have organized and are now ready to receive challenges from teams averaging seventeen years. The lineup will probably be as follows: Meyer, center field; Watson, pitcher; Collier, catcher; Langford, right field; Nolan, third base; Buckingham, first base; King, left field; Dodge, second base; Halper, shortstop; and Callan and Beyer in reserve. Send all challenges to A. W. Collier, 22th street northwest.

The Emerson base ball club has organized for the season. Last year it was practically the sixteen-year-old champion of the District and with the present line-up the prospects for the coming year are still brighter. The infield is especially strong with a heavy battery. The lineup is as follows: Beller, second base; Maclean, center field; Leary, pitcher; Dix, Wilson, Wright and Zier, utility players.

The strong St. Martin's base ball team has organized for the coming season with the following players: G. Norris, pitcher; Daly, Houch, second base; Halper, shortstop; Turner, first base; D. Murphy, second base; Hammett, third base; Lewis, left field; and Houch, right field. Ernest, center field; P. Murphy (manager) right field. Address all challenges to F. Murphy, 111 Seaton street northeast.

The Brookland Methodist base ball team has just been reorganized under new management, and is ready to play ball. Its new diamond at 12th street and Rhode Island avenue, South Brookland, the finest amateur base ball diamond in Washington. All uniformed teams desiring games, should write to E. C. Saltzman, 1527 M Street, Washington, D. C.

The Star Juniors have organized and are now ready to receive challenges from teams averaging seventeen years. The lineup will probably be as follows: Meyer, center field; Watson, pitcher; Collier, catcher; Langford, right field; Nolan, third base; Buckingham, first base; King, left field; Dodge, second base; Halper, shortstop; and Callan and Beyer in reserve. Send all challenges to A. W. Collier, 22th street northwest.

The Emerson base ball club has organized for the season. Last year it was practically the sixteen-year-old champion of the District and with the present line-up the prospects for the coming year are still brighter. The infield is especially strong with a heavy battery. The lineup is as follows: Beller, second base; Maclean, center field; Leary, pitcher; Dix, Wilson, Wright and Zier, utility players.

The strong St. Martin's base ball team has organized for the coming season with the following players: G. Norris, pitcher; Daly, Houch, second base; Halper, shortstop; Turner, first base; D. Murphy, second base; Hammett, third base; Lewis, left field; and Houch, right field. Ernest, center field; P. Murphy (manager) right field. Address all challenges to F. Murphy, 111 Seaton street northeast.

The Brookland Methodist base ball team has just been reorganized under new management, and is ready to play ball. Its new diamond at 12th street and Rhode Island avenue, South Brookland, the finest amateur base ball diamond in Washington. All uniformed teams desiring games, should write to E. C. Saltzman, 1527 M Street, Washington, D. C.

NATIONALS BATTED OUT A VICTORY

Special Dispatch to The Star.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 4.—A batting streak in the tenth inning here yesterday gave the game to the Nationals against the Kansas City team by a score of 5 to 2.

The weather was cold and the attendance was small, but the game was the fastest that has been seen here this season. The Nationals pulled off two double plays, while the locals got three. Delahanty was the only runner, and getting the ball to first in time to get the batter was a fine exhibition of fast work. Freeman, McBride and Shipke all made several hits in the game.

Keeley twirled the full game for the Washington team and delivered the goods. He was especially good in pinches and had excellent control of his arm. But six hits were scored against him and he fanned seven batters. Street caught an exceptionally fine game.

Swann, for the locals, allowed Washington two hits in the first five innings. He was succeeded by Brandon, who had speed, but lacked control of his arm. All of the runs were made off the latter.

Washington's first run came in the sixth, with Clymer singled, Delahanty took second on a passed ball and scored on Freeman's scratch hit over third.

In the seventh inning Shipke walked and reached third on Keeley's sacrifice. Ganley brought him home with a long fly.

The tenth was a slugfest. Pickering opened with a double. Ganley popped to Monte Cross. Delahanty's single scored Pickering. Clymer also singled; so did Freeman. Street scored on Delahanty's sacrifice. Clymer with a double. McBride popped to Jake Beckley. Shipke walked, filling the bags, but Keeley fled to Murphy.

Manager Cantillon and wife go to Chicago Sunday night, where the manager will spend Monday, and meet the club in Indianapolis Tuesday.

The score:

WASHINGTON.	AB.	R.	HR.	PO.	A.	E.
Pickering, cf.	3	1	2	1	0	0
Ganley, rf.	4	0	0	1	0	0
Delahanty, 2b.	1	1	4	2	0	0
Clymer, rf.	5	2	2	2	0	1
Freeman, lb.	5	0	3	11	0	0
Street, c.	4	0	1	8	0	0
McBride, ss.	5	0	0	2	3	0
Shipke, 3b.	3	1	1	5	0	0
Keeley, p.	1	0	2	0	4	0
Totals	30	5	10	30	18	2

KANSAS CITY.	AB.	R.	HR.	PO.	A.	E.
Hallman, rf.	4	1	1	2	0	0
Murphy, lf.	4	0	0	2	0	0
Hill, c.	4	0	0	2	0	0
Beckley, lb.	4	1	3	9	0	0
Brashers, 2b.	3	0	1	2	3	0
Krueger, 3b.	2	0	0	2	0	1
Cross, ss.	3	0	1	3	5	2
Sullivan, c.	2	0	0	2	0	1
Crisp, c.	2	0	0	2	0	0
Swann, p.	1	0	0	0	2	0
Brandon, p.	0	0	0	0	0	0
Kirwin, p.	1	0	0	0	0	0
Howard, p.	1	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	32	2	6	30	12	3

*Batted for Swann in fifth. †Batted for Brandon in tenth.

Washington, 5, 0, 0, 0, 1, 1, 0, 0, 3, 5.
Kansas City, 2, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 2, 2.
Earned runs—Washington, 3; Kansas City, 2. First bases by errors—Washington, 2; Kansas City, 1. Left on base—Washington, 2; Kansas City, 4. First base on balls—off Keeley, 2; off Swann, 2; off Freeman, 1; off Delahanty, 1; off Swann, 5; by Brandon, 5. Hits—made—off Swann, 2; off Brandon, 5. Struck out—by Keeley, 7; by Swann, 2; by Brandon, 4. Doubles—Clymer, 2; Beckley, 1. Triples—Freeman, 1. Double plays—Cross to Brashers to Beckley, Beckley to Beckley, Delahanty to Freeman, Keeley to McBride to Freeman. Hit by pitcher—by Keeley, 1. Wild pitch—Keeley. Passed ball—Crisp. Umpire—Owen. Time of game—1 hour and 55 minutes.

TOM HUGHES THROWS AWAY THE GAME

Special Dispatch to The Star.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 4.—The Washington Colts and the Springfield team met in a very scrappy game here yesterday afternoon, which was won by the home team in twelve innings after Long Tom Hughes, manager of the Washington team, had thrown the ball over the fence, which let in the winning run.

Score, 8 to 7.

On several occasions Hughes did not quite fall in with the "ump's" decisions, and once or twice they nearly got together, but the players interfered and things were quieted down by the pitcher. But when it came to the twelfth with the score a tie Hughes did not like the decision rendered on a runner at third base and became so mad that he just took the sphere in hand and pitched it over the clubhouse. This scored the runner and gave the game to Springfield.

It was a very poor exhibition, each side making an abundance of errors. In this respect the visitors started, falling down on eight chances. The score:

SPRINGFIELD.	AB.	R.	HR.	PO.	A.	E.
Cosulich, cf.	6	3	4	3	0	0
Ruby, lf.	5	1	1	0	0	0
Miller, 1b.	6	0	1	17	0	0
Novacek, rf.	5	0	0	1	0	0
Berg, 3b.	5	2	1	1	2	0
Scharfweber, ss.	4	2	2	6	4	1
Berringer, 2b.	5	0	0	3	3	0
Sanborn, c.	3	0	0	3	1	1
Kings, p.	1	1	0	0	1	0
Fairman, p.	1	0	0	1	2	0
Moore, p.	2	0	0	1	2	0
Totals	43	8	8	36	15	3